GATEWAYS SHAVUOS RETREAT

GATEWAYS SHAVUOS SCHEDULE 5771
Tuesday June 7 - Thursday June 9, 2011

STAMFORD PLAZA HOTEL
STAMFORD, CT
Welcome to Shavuos 2011 with The Gateways Organization at the Stamford Plaza Hotel. Our entire staff is dedicated to making your stay a most enjoyable one. We will be providing stimulating programs, delicious cuisine & fine entertainment, making this a Shavuos to remember.

Please read through this program to acquaint yourselves with the daily schedule.

After arriving in your room, if you had any special room requests (cots, cribs etc.) that have not been provided for, please call Housekeeping from your room.

Electronic Locks: The electronic lock on the door to your room has been disengaged. An ordinary key will be issued for the duration of your stay. In the event that the electric lock is still operational, please call the front desk immediately. Please allow ample time for the lock to be disabled in time for Yom Tov. Please keep in mind there are only 2 keys available for the room and if either one is lost or not returned, a $25 charge will be added to your hotel bill, per key.

Tea Room: The Tea Room is located in the Gazebo. It will be fully stocked with both hot and cold drinks, cakes, snacks & fruit.

Private Sessions: All the presenters are available for private consultation and questions. Please approach them to set up a time.

Dishes In Rooms: Please do not take any glasses, dishes or silverware out of the dining areas. Disposable utensils are available for your use.

Light Switches in Room: We have made arrangements with Housekeeping to leave all the lights in your rooms as they find them. Please use the attached post-it notes and place them over the switches you would like to leave on.

Emergency Contact: In case of an emergency, dial the Hotel Operator or come to the front desk. There are EMT’s on the premises.

Special Dietary Requirements: Those that are allergic to nuts or other products and/or have special dietary needs, please notify the Maitre’D, Fernando.

Shidduch Meetings: Over Yom Tov there will be a number of opportunities for singles and their parents to meet each other as well as discuss possibilities with the Gateways staff. The times and location are listed each day in the schedule. Please approach the shadchanim who will be facilitating these meetings.

Children’s Program: Registration for day camp begins on Tuesday at 1:00pm on the 2nd floor. The Day Camp information can be found in the Camp Gateways brochure. If you will require private babysitting on Yom Tov please register with the Day Camp before Yom Tov. During meal times we ask parents to please take responsibility for their children as there will be no program during those times. The Children’s program is under the supervision of Rabbi Avi Frank.

Boys Hasmodah Program: 7-14 year old boys are invited to join Rabbi Dovid Libman and to participate in the fantastic learning program where they can earn great prizes. Please see the posted hasmodah schedule for meeting places.

Beis HaMedrash: Our well stocked Beis Hamedrash is located in the Hartford Room. This room is open 24 hours for your private learning.

Teen Program: 13 - 18 year olds should not miss the Teen programs. Please see flyers posted around the hotel for times and location.

Candle Lighting: Under no circumstances are candles to be used in your room. Candles of any kind are strictly prohibited according to Stamford fire code outside of the designated areas. Please observe these rules for your safety. Please note: We have Ner Neshamah’s available for your use.
Speakers & Staff Biographies

Rabbi Mordechai Suchard - Rabbi Suchard is the Founder and Director of Gateways and the son of a Rav and Dayan on the prestigious Johannesburg Beis Din. He studied in Telzhe, Cleveland and Ponevezh, Bnei Brak. He received Smichah from the Chief Rabbi and Av Beth Din of Jerusalem, Rabbi Kulitz zt"l.

Rabbi Mordechai Becher - Rabbi Becher is a Senior Lecturer for Gateways and is originally from Australia. He lectured at Ohr Somayach College in Jerusalem for 15 years, served in the Israel Defense Forces and taught in training programs for rabbis and educators. Rabbi Becher received his rabbinic ordination from the Chief Rabbinate of Israel and the Chief Rabbi of Jerusalem. He has co-authored two books on contemporary issues in Jewish law and has responded to thousands of legal, ethical and philosophical questions on the “Ask the Rabbi.org” website. His latest book, “Gateway to Judaism”, published by Artscroll-Mesorah Press, is now in its fifth printing.

Rabbi Jonathan Ghermezian - Rabbi Ghermezian, originally from Edmonton Canada, is currently a member of the Ner Israel Rabbinical College Kollel and has been studying there for the last 10 years. He lectures on various topics with an emphasis on finding parallels between Torah living and modern research in psychology. He is the founder of Torahdose.com, through which many aspects of practical Jewish law and haskafa are discussed.

Rabbi Dovid Greenblatt - Rabbi Greenblatt comes from a heritage of illustrious Rabbis. He is an exciting teacher who has taught for many organizations. Besides being an active teacher for over thirty years, he has founded and administers several large Charity Funds and Organizations. Professionally, he is an accomplished Internet Executive who is an expert in Voice over the Internet and author of “Call Hear ‘Round the World.” R’ David is a founding member of the Gateways Organization. He lives in Lawrence, NY and is the proud father of nine children and a “staff” of grandchildren!

Mrs. Debbie Greenblatt - Mrs. Greenblatt is a Senior Lecturer for Gateways and has been involved in teaching and counseling Jewish women for more than twenty-five years. Her insightful and powerful presentations on topics such as practical applications of Jewish philosophy and personal relationships has touched the minds and hearts of all those who attend her classes. Mrs. Greenblatt lectures frequently within the Metropolitan area and across the country.

Rebbetzin Esther Jungreis - Rebbetzin Jungreis was born in Hungary. She came to the United States after surviving the Nazi’s Bergen Belsen concentration camp. Determined to devote her life to fighting the spiritual holocaust among Jews in the U.S. and around the world, the Rebbetzin founded Hineni. She has authored three best selling books, “Jewish Soul on Fire”, “The Committed Life” and “The Committed Marriage”. The Rebbetzin lectures across the globe, has been featured in numerous publications, and has been given formal recognition for her accomplishments by major religious and civic organizations in the U.S. and Israel.

Rabbi Doniel Katz - Rabbi Katz is an internationally sought-after speaker and teacher. A former award-winning filmmaker and theater director in Australia, he has lived and studied in Jerusalem for the last ten years. His classes at Aish Hatorah Jerusalem routinely draws overflow crowds eager to hear his unique combination of mussar, self-development, Chassidus and Kabbalah. Since then, Doniel has created a live online learning community (thesongbegins.com), and is currently a teacher at Neve Yerushalayim. His mission is to reveal the unity among different paths of Torah in order to allow all Jews to experience its spiritual depth, beauty, and transformative power.

Rabbi Paysach Krohn – Rabbi Krohn is known throughout the Jewish world for his books and lectures. In addition to authoring the classic, authoritative book on Bris Milah, he has written a series of seven books of Jewish short stories known as the Maqgid Series. He has lectured in cities around the world, from Jerusalem to Johannesburg, from Montreal to Miami, in Europe and in South America. He has a series of more than 100 tapes on topics ranging from parenting, marriage, character development and Torah education. He lives in Kew Gardens, NY with his wife Miriam and takes great pride in his family.

Rabbi Jonathan Rietti – Rabbi Rietti is a Senior Lecturer for Gateways and is a descendant of the Sephardic leader the Ben Ish Chai and son of the famous British actor Robert Rietti. He received Smichah from Gateshead Yeshiva, after which he helped establish the now flourishing Kollel in Gibraltar. With a master’s in education, he has practiced for 42 years as an educational consultant to parents of gifted children and those with ADD. He currently works in Brooklyn under Machon Daas Esvuna where he has partnered with Rabbi Meir Pogrow to train teachers using hands on chinuch methods steeped in Chazal based principles. Rabbi Rietti has authored over twenty nine lecture albums on topics including inner growth, health, parenting and Jewish identity.

Rabbi Yonason Shippel – Rabbi Shippel is a Senior Lecturer for Gateways. A native of South Africa, Rabbi Shippel is a graduate of Columbia University, NY and Ner Israel Rabbinical College, Baltimore, MD. Rabbi Shippel holds a Masters degree in Judaic Studies. After receiving his Smichah in Jerusalem, Rabbi Shippel founded a vibrant congregation, learning center and day school in Cape Town, South Africa. Rabbi Shippel has spoken in communities and on campuses throughout the world, where he shares his unique life experiences and practical advice for successfully integrating ancient traditions with 21st century living.

Rabbi Avrumy Jordan – Rabbi Jordan was born in Sydney, Australia and has served as Director of Operations for Gateways for the past 10 years. A graduate of Ohr Lagolah, a chinuch & rabbonius training program in Jerusalem, he received his Smichah from the Beth Din of Jerusalem.

Mrs. Miriam Klein – Miriam, originally from Manchester, England, received her Bachelors degree in International Hospitality Management from Manchester Metropolitan University. She has worked in various positions in the hotel industry in England and the US. Miriam has worked at Gateways for 3 years and oversees all reservations for the Gateways Yom Tov Retreats. Miriam’s pleasant demeanor is truly an asset to the high stress demands of her job. Miriam and her husband and 3 children live in Monsey, NY.

Rabbi Yisroel Tepper - Rabbi Tepper is the assistant director of special events for Gateways. Originally from Flatbush, he studied in the Mir Yerushalayim for six years and received kiruv training at Aish Hatorah. He is involved in kiruv and has lectured widely on an array of topics. He now lives in Far Rockaway, NY with his wife Sarah and their 3 children.

Connections - The Singles Division of Gateways

Mrs. Ahuva Cherns - Ahuva, a granddaughter of Telzer Rosh Hayeshiva, Rabbi Motel Katz, has been instrumental in making marriages, together with her husband, for the past 10 years. Ahuva’s understanding of peoples needs, makes her a very sought after shadchan. Her kind character and easygoing style makes her a pleasure to work with. Ahuva lives with her husband and five children in Monsey, N.Y. She works full-time for Gateways Connections.

Rabbi Yisroel Cherns - Rabbi Cherns directs Connections, the Singles Division of Gateways and assists young adults in the establishment of their home. Yisroel also runs the mentoring program at Gateways’ Russian Division RAJE. Originally from Monsey, Yisroel learned in The Mir-Jerusalem and Lakewood.

RAJE is a Jewish educational organization dedicated to strengthening Jewish identity and peoplehood, fostering community development and cultivating the next generation of leaders to ensure Jewish continuity for Russian American Jews.

With 16,000 in our network and 4000 program participants on a yearly basis, RAJE is at the forefront of community development.

RAJE Fellowships
Over 750 university students and young professionals complete our flagship Leadership Fellowship program each year, undergoing an intense semester-long educational and leadership training program culminating in a two-week educational trip to Europe and Israel. These alumni are fast changing the face of the Jewish community, creating a strong foundation for grassroots community development and ensuring Jewish continuity for generations to come.
The Brownstone Experience

The Brownstone’s mission is to use NYC as an experiential classroom to strengthen Jewish identity and peoplehood, foster community development and cultivate the next generation of leaders to ensure Jewish continuity for American Jews.

The Brownstone building, located in the heart of New York’s East Village, will be a hub of dynamic and engaging immersion learning programs for the local community and for collegiates and young adults from across the United States and abroad.

The six-story Brownstone will feature: tastefully appointed meeting rooms, classrooms, a spacious auditorium, library, sleeping accommodations, offices, lounge, dining hall and kitchen, as well as a garden and a rooftop terrace.

The Leadership Weekends are held throughout the year and offer participants a concentrated immersion learning experience, modeled on the Metro Adventures.

Educational & Community Programming

Dynamic and creative activities that service the needs and interests of the local community featuring participatory, user friendly Shabbat and Holiday services, enjoyable meals, activities and classes. Presentations and workshops on dating, relationships, self-help, healthy living and Jewish thought, monthly forums on contemporary issues, community service drives, and life skills development courses will also be an integral part of The Brownstone Experience.

Evaluation and Follow Up of all the Brownstone Experience Programs are an ongoing, dynamic, engaging, timely and responsive process that includes interviews, multimedia feedback strategies, surveys and forms, Facebook groups and regular phone contact.

Children’s Program

Welcome to the Children’s Program for Shavuos 2011! We all look forward to sharing these special days with you and working together as a team to enjoy them as much as possible. Our skilled and dedicated staff are committed to creating an exciting, safe, fun-filled day camp environment for your children. Please continue reading the categorized information for important specific details about our program. If you still have unanswered questions, please feel free to contact Rabbi Avi Frank at 845-222-4016

Check-in/Registration:
Our staff will be available for Day Camp Registration on Tuesday June 7th, 2011 throughout the afternoon in the lobby. We ask that you sign up your child(ren) and provide us with any pertinent information that we would need to know concerning your child (i.e. allergies, special needs, specific instructions). It is also important for the safety of all children, that we have accurate and current information such as room-numbers of the parents. All information will be strictly used for Day Camp purposes only.

Camp Hours and Ages:
• Camp Gateways will IY”H begin on Wednesday, June 8th. Day camp hours will be held throughout the day and will be posted on the daily schedule.
• We request that an adult or an older sibling pick up children under age six from day-camp. If you allow your child to leave on his / her own-without an adult, please inform your child’s counselor.
• The Day Camp is for children aged eighteen months to twelve years. There is no day camp for children under eighteen months and no private babysitting during day camp hours.

Masmidim Program:
• Gateways Day Camp offers a superior Hasmodah program as part of our daily curriculum, given by our highly acclaimed Rebbi, Rabbi Dovid Libman.
• Rabbi Libman is also available for private learning sessions in Mishnayos, Gemorrah or Chumash.

Private Babysitting:
• Parents have the option of having a private babysitter whenever Day Camp is not in session. The fee for this service is $10 per hour. If a babysitter watches more than one room, the charge is $8 per hour, per room.
• It will be the responsibility of each family to pay the babysitter directly as soon as Yom Tov is over.
• If you are interested in this service, please contact Mrs. Frank at Check-in so that she can arrange it for you.

Nursery/Pre School:
- A highly competent staff, under the leadership of Ms. Deana Blumenthal, provides an environment that is warm and friendly, as well as educational and fun.
- The pre-school division is divided into these groups:
  18–24 months • 2 – 3year olds • 4 – 5 year olds
- Please make sure to include all necessary items when dropping your children off such as diapers, bottles, pacifiers, strollers etc. and remind the counselors of any special instructions.
- There will be toys, books and puzzles available for your children’s use when Day Camp is not in session. Please speak to Morah Deana.

Lost & Found
At the end of the day all items/clothing that are left in the rooms are brought to the hotel’s front desk. Whatever is not claimed is brought to the Gateways office and donated to charity after 30 days.

Counselor Tipping:
• Tipping is highly encouraged for our hard-working staff.
• The recommended rate is $10 per child per day. Tips are pooled and distributed by merit among the counselors.
• All monies can be submitted at Check-Out, directly to Rabbi and/or Mrs. Avi and Tziri Frank in the lobby at the end of Yom Tov.
• In addition, gratuities for the Hasmaodah Program can be given directly to Rabbi Dovid Libman.
• We thank you in advance for your cooperation.

We look forward to spending a rewarding and memorable Yom Tov with you and your family.

Sincerely,
The Gateways Children’s Program Staff
